Dear Lynlee

On behalf of NASDAP Executive, I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you very much being on the scholarship panel to decide the 2007 NASDAP winner.

As well as being one of three people making the decision on the successful applicant, the work you undertook in the role of Secretary was crucial to the success of the scholarship and we appreciate that you are able to do this for us so effectively and efficiently.

It is my intention to contact the 2007 winner, Vaughan Couillault, tomorrow, to inform him that the public announcement is made in the Term IV NASDAP newsletter. As per the normal course of the announcement process, I will ask Vaughan to prepare a 300 word profile of himself and his research.

Once again, thank you for your commitment to this.

Kind regards

Annette M Taylor [Ms]
President NASDAP

Rt Hon Bill English
Opposition Speaker for Education
Parliament Buildings
WELLINGTON

Dear Bill

On behalf of NASDAP Executive, I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you very much for speaking to us on Friday 27 October in Wellington.

Executive thoroughly enjoyed the time you spent with us; the rigorous debate was gratefully received and there was much talk after you left on how "great the discussion was."

We would very much like to talk with you again, especially when you are the next Minister of Education. We will ensure that you keep receiving our newsletters once a term and I know that regional associations would be very keen to maintain contact with you. In particular, Geoff O'Halloran (Deputy Principal at Tawa College in Wellington) is keen to ask you to a Wellington regional meeting in the very near future.

Enjoy the remainder of the year and we wish you well as you continue to work on the behalf of students, parents, caregivers and teachers to ensure that the education system we have in New Zealand remains free and robust.

Kind regards

Annette M Taylor [Ms]
